Tanker Disabled by Torpedoes or Mines Off Atlantic Coast

Two Members of Crew Injured in Flight From Damaged Craft

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 18.—(AP)—The Atlantic Refining Company's 19,400-ton tanker E. H. Blum was abandoned off the Atlantic coast Monday night by her crew of 40 who expressed divergent opinions when landed at Norfolk by a rescue ship as to whether their vessel had been torpedoed or had struck a mine.

Two members of the crew suffered minor injuries in escaping in four life boats from the tanker, which was still afloat when they last saw her. Survivors interviewed here by newsmen agreed that the tanker was wrecked by three explosions spaced about 15 minutes apart. None saw a submarine, they said.

Captain William L. Evans of Philadelphia declined to talk about the wrecking of the ship.

The crew was picked up by a rescue vessel within an hour after their four lifeboats were launched.

Lookout's Story

Ernest Lee Thomas, able seaman of Jasper, Fla., who was on lookout duty on the forecastle head when the first explosion rocked the tanker, gave this account:

"I saw a light, which I took to be the mastlight of another ship, about 75 yards off the starboard bow. I reported this light to the bridge and about 15 seconds later the captain ordered full speed ahead and hard right. Then there came an explosion and the bow came up five or six feet. I believe we were torpedoed."

"The captain gave the order to

Slightly Colder for Tonight is Forecast

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The weather bureau predicted today that Illinois generally would have slightly colder weather this afternoon and tonight but that occasional light snow would end by tonight throughout the state. Chicago may have a low of zero to 5 below tomorrow morning.

Minimum temperatures last night included 1 above zero at Rockford; 4 at Chicago; 5 at Peoria and Galesburg; 7 at Springfield; 9 at East St. Louis and 17 at Cairo.

At least a half inch of snow fell yesterday over most of the state but Centralia had an inch and St. Louis and Carbondale had about two inches.

The state highway division reported that all roads were open after light snow, most of which blew off the pavements, in the Dixon, Peoria, Effingham, East St. Louis, Carbondale and Springfield areas.

Report Green River Ordnance Plant Will Require 10,000 Men

(Telegraph Special Service)

Rock Island, Ill., Feb. 18.—It was reported unofficially here today that the Green River ordnance plant south of Dixon, which will cost about $27,000,000, must be completed and ready for operation by Dec. 1, and that approximately 10,000 men will be employed in its construction, working in shifts.

The government plans to quarter these workers in barracks to be erected at the site; and it was estimated that between 4,000 and 5,000 men will be employed in production after the plant is completed.

The War Today!

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst
(Telegraph Special Service)

The Japanese successes in the Orient and their consequent threat to India have brought that great empire to the verge of momentous developments.

The way the leaves of fate are falling there is a likelihood—or so it seems to me—that the war at long last will bring India either a far greater degree to independence from England or slavery under the yoke of Nipponese conquerors.

When I was in India during the first World War the Japs were boasting openly that one day they would possess this land where princes are so rich they don't know their own wealth. Today, a quarter of a century later, the Mikado's empire-blazers are claiming that the fall of Singapore finally opens the way to Hindustan. And we aren't in position to refute this claim now.

The Japanese thrust into Burma is reported today to be continuing and undoubtedly they are preparing for a grand offensive against that country. Possession of Burma would be the entering wedge for India.

With this threat rapidly developing Chinese Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and his famous wife, who is his right-hand adviser, are in India to impress on the people the need for an all-out war effort. Madame Chiang, who herself was undertaken military tasks for her husband, has warned the Indian leaders:

"War is at India's doorstep"—a line euphemistically reminiscent of Rudyard Kipling's famous poetic quip which made the Germans so furious in the last war, "The Hun is at the gate."

Now successful defense of the vast Indian domains, with their population of some 359,000,000 depends in major degree on the Indians themselves. To be sure, the British have some white troops there, and a native army of about a million has been trained, and part of it is in service. Some of these troops are over-seas, but the distribution has been kept secret.

In any event, defense of India calls for a united effort of the whole people, both the states and the native India which are under the princes, and British India which

Want Your Thyroid Gland Removed? Do It Yourself by Drinking Water

New York, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Science has a new, magic drink of water which does an internal surgical operation, complete, bloodless, painless, harmless.

The drink is ordinary water containing radio-active iodine. The taste is natural. The operation is done by the rays of the iodine, on the thyroid glands of sick humans and of experimental animals.

A survey today showed this iodine in use both at the University of California and at Massachusetts Institute of Technology where it is produced by the cyclotrons of the respective institutions. Radio-active iodine is not known in nature. It must be made artificially. It emits rays like those of radium.

British Armies in Middle East Being Heavily Reinforced

May Be in Preparation to Combat Nazi Drive Into Turkey Soon

(By The Associated Press)

A hint that Britain may be heavily reinforcing her armies in the Middle East, possibly to combat a German thrust into Turkey this spring, was dropped by the London Admiralty today with the disclosure that "certain convoys" had been safely escorted through the Mediterranean.

The Admiralty said the operations, apparently on a big scale, were carried out between Feb. 13 and 16 with the loss of only two merchant craft.

"The enemy made great efforts to inflict serious loss and published the usual exaggerated claims," an Admiralty communiqué said.

The point of reinforcement was not specified. An Italian communiqué asserted Monday that a British destroyer and seven merchant ships had been sunk out of a big convoy en route from Alexandria, Egypt, to the bomb-battered island of Malta, about midway between the toe of the Italian boot and Libya, North Africa.

Registration Fell Below Estimation

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Slightly more than half a million Illinois men registered for selective service Monday, State Draft Director Paul G. Armstrong reported today.

Reports from 330 of the state's 361 draft boards placed the total at 500,903 and Armstrong said that a projection of the returns indicated that the final total would be about 548,000.

The registration fell below the 610,000 forecast by selective service officials in advance of the registration date.

The registration in Lee county totaled 1,705—924 in Dixon, Palmyra and Nachusa townships, and 781 in the rest of the county.

In Ogle county the registration was 1,812, divided as follows: Forreston 199, Polo 233, Mount Morris 225, Oregon 376, Byron 206, Holcomb 148 and Rochelle 425.

Big Appropriations for War Effort Get Unanimous Passage

Meanwhile Repeal of Pensions for Congress is Sought

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—A record-smashing $32,070,901,900 war appropriation moved to the senate today with a 371 to 0 endorsement by the house under committee warning that supplies must be ready against a supreme axis offensive this spring.

House appropriations committee members, introducing the measure yesterday, spoke against a background of information furnished privately by high ranking army officials and urged quick action on the bill, which includes outlays for transportation and other immediate items as well as for long range production. The house passed the bill with only four hours debate.

With similar unanimity yesterday, the senate passed by a voice vote a $163,806,854 deficiency measure, including $100,000,000 for civilian defense against air raids, and returned it to the house for action on minor amendments. In that bill, the senate left intact house restrictions against use of any part of the protection fund for "fan dancing, street shows or other public entertainment" or for the treasury's $80,000,000 Duck income tax cartoon film.

The big war fund carried $22,888,901,900 for the war department, mostly for ordnance and expediting production, with a provision that half of this could go for lend-lease aid.

Amendment Rejected

Shortly before passage, the house rejected by a standing vote of 98 to 38 an amendment by Rep. Smith (D-Va) which would have banned the closed shop in industry, and jurisdictional and sympathy strikes.

Rep. Ditter (R-Pa) criticized Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the appropriations committee for a letter he sent Monday to house Democrats, accusing Republicans of parliamentary tactics on appropriation bills aimed at winning control of the house in November.

Cannon's letter, placed in the Record, warned his colleagues to be on the alert for Republican amendments to the $32,000,000,000 bill. The letter said the Republicans made a "clever coup" with their no fan-dancing amendment to the civilian defense bill when no fan-dancing was in the bill and when the committee already had approved a change having the same effect.

Ditter said the letter was "narrow, confining and partisan," and added that Republicans as well as Democrats had supported defense

Neosho, Mo., Feb. 18.—(AP)—The city council of Neosho, where an army training camp is under construction, has set a ceiling on family dwelling rents.

By ordinance the council decreed that no person shall charge a rental higher than one per cent a month on the actual cost or the reasonable value of any property. Penalties for violation are a fine up to $500 or 30 days in jail or both.

A complaint from five citizens to the mayor would start an investigation necessary before filing of charges. Leo H. Johnson, city attorney, said he believed Neosho was the first town to pass such a law.

Rangoon, Burma, Feb. 18.—(AP)—A civil evacuation department, established by the government of Burma to assist in clearing civilians from Rangoon, began moving its own employees to the interior today.

Approximately 5,000 Indians were still camped in one area of Rangoon hoping somehow to get passage to India.

Another 2,000 were milling about the vast gardens of the fantastic ramshackle palace awaiting transport to their homeland.

The roads northward were filled with a steady procession of vehicles jammed with turbaned natives and their womenfolk in bright saris, as thousands moved out of the city. One fancy black motor hearse was seen filled with household goods.

War "Just Begun," Japanese Premier Tells Celebrants

Tokyo (from Japanese Broadcasts) Feb. 18.—(AP)—The war "has only just begun," Premier General Hideki Tojo told a mass meeting celebrating the fall of Singapore, today.

"We Japanese must continue our efforts together with Germany and Italy until the foes of the axis are brought to their knees," he added.

The rally was the principal meeting of hundreds held throughout the empire and the occupied lands and was timed to coincide with a "formal entry" of the Japanese army into Singapore city.

First Americans on Home Soil to be Killed in War

Willemstad, Curacao, Dutch West Indies, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Detonation of a German torpedo which had nosed to an Aruba Island beach from a raiding submarine killed four Dutchmen and wounded three others dismantling it yesterday, thus causing the first casualties of the war on American soil from hostile service operations.

The 18-foot missile was among explosives fired by undersea craft which sank or damaged seven tankers in the Caribbean, and shelled oil refineries of Aruba and Curacao Monday.

It presumably had missed a target at sea and had been regarded as a dud.

No Business

Joliet, Ill., Feb. 18.—(AP)—The Will county treasurer's office is closed for a week—indirectly because of the war.

Treasurer James C. Bell put on his uniform and went on active duty Sunday as a reserve captain in the Marine Corps. A new treasurer can't be appointed until Feb. 25 when the county board of supervisors will meet, and—

State's Attorney James E. Burke ruled yesterday that since there isn't any county treasurer, there can't be a deputy treasurer.

So all tax collections were suspended, bank accounts impounded and other business stopped.

Shorts, Brassieres, Not Bottled Goods, Give Officials Headache

Austin, Tex., Feb. 18.—(AP)—It's shorts and brassieres, not the bottled goods, that are giving the state liquor board a headache.

The issue is, "Do shorts and brassieres constitute sufficient covering for a beer garden's carhop?"

The board's answer is "No," but the members don't know just what to do about it.

While the liquor board devoted an all-day session to discussion of sex appeal in relation to beer sales, Houston police were investigating the fatal shooting of Mrs. Maxine Long, 19, a carhop in one of the establishments, and Henry M. Griffin, 45, a cattleman.

Justice of the Peace Ben Moorehead said Griffin shot Mrs. Long, then himself.

In Griffin's pocket was a note saying: "Ten days ago I discov-

Enemy Activity on Bataan Peninsula is Increasing Steadily

U. S. Army Bombers in Successful Attack of Nippon Convoy

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The start of the long expected assault in force against General Douglas MacArthur's lines in Bataan was indicated today in a war department communiqué reporting increased enemy air activity, much heavier Japanese artillery fire and the landing of Japanese reinforcements at Olongapo in Subic Bay just north of Bataan peninsula.

At the same time, however, the department reported that four-motored Army bombers, attacking Japanese ships off Bangka Island between Sumatra and Borneo, scored direct hits on two enemy transports, one large and one small, both of which were believed sunk. Two enemy barges were destroyed, with no damage to any of the American planes.

The text of the communiqué, No. 112 of the war, based on reports received here up to 8:30 a. m., C. W. T.:

"1. Philippine theater: "New enemy air units are appearing over our lines, bombing our troops almost constantly. Another bombing attack was made on the refugee camp at Cabacben. "Hostile artillery fire on our forts from positions on the Cavite shore continues. New enemy batteries in Bataan have increased the density of artillery fire on our positions."

"A fairly large convoy of Japanese troop ships has arrived in Subic bay and enemy reinforcements are landing at Olongapo."

"2. Netherlands Indies: "A flight of American Army flying fortress bombers attacked Japanese ships off Bangka island. Direct hits were scored on a large enemy transport and on a small transport. Both are believed to have been sunk. Two enemy barges were destroyed. There was no damage to any of our planes."

"3. There is nothing to report from other areas."

At the refugee camp at Cabacben, the department reported yesterday, a Japanese bombing attack killed 18 women and 5 children and wounded 13 women and 9 children. Department officials said there was no report of casualties in the second bombing of the camp.

President Gives Warning
Meanwhile the war came closer home to Americans today with a presidential warning that the country's shores could be attacked and word from the Canal Zone of a possible U-boat base in the Caribbean area.

But there was cheering evidence of an eventual naval comeback in the Pacific. The United States destroyer Shaw, once officially listed as lost in the Pearl Harbor attack, arrived at a west coast port from a limping, jury-rigged trip under her own power and is being reconditioned for active service.

The vessel made the 2,000-mile voyage with a stub emergency bow, fitted in two months of repairs in Hawaii. Navy officers who disclosed the voyage said at Honolulu that the Shaw was in drydock at the time of the December 7 attack and was hit repeatedly by bombs, one of which exploded her magazines and wrecked the forward section. Secretary Knox on Dec. 15 had listed the Shaw as among vessels lost in the raid.

Roosevelt's warning of the possibility of attack came late yesterday in a press conference. He said the enemy could shell New York or drop bombs on Detroit under certain conditions.

Insufficient Strength
Asked whether he thought an attack on Alaska was possible, Roosevelt replied in the affirmative. To the question of whether American air and naval strength was sufficient to prevent such attacks, replied, certainly not.

Speculation over the possibility that German submarines might be operating from a hidden base in the Caribbean area arose in Balboa in the wake of the Monday U-boat raid of Aruba. Army and Navy men hoped to get a clue to the location of the base of the undersea craft within the next few days.

Washington meanwhile awaited official reaction from Rio de Janeiro to the torpedoing of the Brazilian steamer Buarque, the first hostile axis action against the Latin Republic. In 1917 Brazil declared war on Germany fol-

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour 2 pints of bile juice into your bowels every day. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels. Then gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these 2 pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Get a package today. Take as directed. Effective in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills, 10¢ and 25¢.

Itineraries of Summer Travels Are Recalled

Echoes of last summer's vacation itineraries were heard at Monday evening's meeting of the Dixon Travel club. The Misses Marjorie Chandler and Nina Walrad were entertaining at the home of Miss Jean Hitchcock.

Miss Lorraine Missman told of her visit to Pipestone National monument in Pipestone, Minn., reviewed the history of Pipestone and Indian legends surrounding its founding, and displayed objects made from the strange red stone by the Indians. The Misses Glady and Ethel Jamison were sharing their experiences while traveling to the west coast, through the east and Canada, their itinerary including Portland, Seattle, Victoria, with its 22-acre Butchart garden, Lake Louise, Banff and Winnipeg.

Miss Walrad described her motor trip to San Francisco, returning by way of Los Angeles, Boulder Dam, Grand Canyon, Santa Fe and Estes park. Her travelogue included accounts of Rodeo Day at Cheyenne, Wyo.; Pioneer Day in Salt Lake City, July 24th, commemorating the date on which Brigham Young and his band reached the Great Salt valley in 1847; and the speaker's impressions of Yosemite valley. A six-mile parade, with covered wagons and decorated floats depicting the history, industries, and products of Utah, featured the Salt Lake City celebration.

Mrs. Forrest Trautwein discussed a recent eastern trip, illustrating her talk with moving pictures of Niagara Falls, Montreal and Quebec, Anson, Me., Concord and Salem, Mass. Near Anson, she located the home of her great-grandfather Brewster.

In Pennsylvania, old Quaker meeting houses and adjoining cemeteries were visited, and pictures were shown of the Exeter Friends Meeting House near Reading, Pa., Maiden Creek, and Roaring Creek, dating back to the early eighteenth century.

In March, Miss Ruth Chiverton and Miss Evelyn Schmidt will entertain at the former's home.

VIRGIL TURNER TO BECOME BRIDE

The Misses Martha Murphy and Thelma Mott, Mt. Morris grade school faculty members, entertained recently with a pre-nuptial party, complimenting Miss Virgil Turner, who is to become the bride of John Kramer of Freeport, Feb. 28, at the bride's home in Ridott.

Miss Turner has been a teacher in Mt. Morris junior high school since 1934.

FAREWELL COURTESY

Mrs. John Shaver of First street was honored at a farewell party last evening, when a party of friends gathered to present her with a gift. The Shavers and their son, Guy, expect to leave about March 1 for Rockford to reside.

Refreshments were served to the group, including Mrs. Dora Heft, Mrs. Ida Tetrick, Mrs. Clara Slick, Mrs. Ella Hobbs, Mrs. Ralph Barnhart, Mrs. Conrad Groth, Mrs. Emma Baker, Mrs. Ray Krug, Mrs. George Fruin, Mrs. Champ Barth, and Miss Verma Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Shaver and their son, Mrs. Slick made the gift presentation.

MUNN-CARPENTER

Miss Dorothy Carpenter of Egan became the bride of Eugene Munn of Mt. Morris, Saturday afternoon, in a nuptial ceremony performed by the Rev. E. R. Hendricks of Mt. Morris at the bride's home.

Miss Sarah Carpenter was her sister's maid of honor, and Edward Miller served Mr. Munn as best man. Barbara Carpenter was her aunt's flower girl.

The couple will reside at 502 East Brayton road, Mt. Morris. Mrs. Munn is with the Cable News company in Mt. Morris, and the bridegroom is an employee of the Rockford Coca-Cola Bottling company.

DOLLS, DOLLS, DOLLS! DIXON BROWNIES DESIGN AND COLOR MORE THAN 50 PAPER DOLLS

Paper dolls—more than 50 of them. Dolls in red, in blue, in green; dolls of varied nationality, size and shape. A dream, surely, or the momentary whim of some good fairy. No, it is a very down-to-earth project of Dixon Brownies, at the North Central school, who turned 75 strong yesterday afternoon to inspect and admire their handiwork at a party arranged by the Brownie Leaders' association.

The dolls, mounted on paper, were displayed on tables in the Scout room at the school, and after the collection had been thoroughly admired, there were refreshments of cookies for the young guests. Ribbon awards attracted all eyes, and were shared by the following:

First—Rosemary Malay, Judy Jones, Susan James and Anne Beanblossom; second—Peggy Anderson, Janet Robinson, Betty Lou Newman, Mary Ann Niemeier, Glenice Mossholder, Shirley McWethy, and Barbara Healthorng; third—Shirley Woodbridge, Mildred Woodratt, Dorothy Fergers, Betty Maves, Mary Gibson, Joyce Morrow, Beverly Billinger, and Marilyn Fane.

Fifty-three entries were made in the city-wide project, and judging was based on color and design of the dolls and their costumes. Mrs. Adolph Eichler headed the jury of judges, with Mrs. Victor Eimler and Mrs. Lloyd Miller as her assistants.

The dolls will be on view in downtown store windows soon, and are expected to attract widespread attention. Mrs. E. M. Greene is president of the Brownie Leaders, her co-workers including Mrs. Dorothy McCoy, Miss Pearl Putnam, Mrs. Helen Metzler, Mrs. F. W. Lynch, Mrs. Philip Hopkins, Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mrs. Charles Lloyd, Mrs. Clarence Niemeier, Mrs. Frederick Zbinden, Miss Ruth Grove, Mrs. Charles Cramer, and Mrs. Joseph Marena.

Clara Hoffman Is Shower Guest

Broadcasters of Bethel Evangelical church were honoring a bride-to-be, Miss Clara Hoffman, at their monthly meeting last evening. Mrs. R. S. Wilson and Miss Cleora Wadsworth were entertaining at the parsonage.

"Feathering a nest" for the honoree provided needlework for the evening. Tea towels were hemmed and monogrammed, and placed in nest shape on a table, with additional gifts. Potholders and dish cloths were formed as a "hen" for the nest.

A pair of lovebirds in a cake was the centerpiece on the refreshment table. Favors were pink nests of crepe paper. Eighteen guests were present.

Miss Hoffman is to become the bride of Walter Capes of Oregon on Friday, Feb. 27.

GRANGE MEETING

The public is invited to attend the fifth anniversary celebration of the Grand Detour Grange, Friday evening at the town hall. A program at 8 o'clock will include an address by a State Grange officer. Refreshments will be served.

Dixon Pair Is Entertained at Franklin Grove

Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon B. Franklin of Third street celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday at the home of their eldest daughter, Mrs. Herman Schrock. Gold and white appointments were used for the celebration.

Dinner was served at a table boasting two wedding cakes, both decorated with a miniature bride and groom. A purse of money, and greeting cards were received by the couple.

The Franklins are the parents of eight children, and only one daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Marth of DeKalb was unable to attend the anniversary party.

Present to honor the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Franklin and children Joan Lee and Virgil, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin and children Violet and Carl Dean, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Franklin, all of Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Franklin and children Joseph, Jr., Lois Mae, and Robert of Mt. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schrock, and children Wanda and Melburn of Franklin Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd White of Amboy, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Ansteth and Herman Schrock, Jr. of Lamolite, Mrs. William Hunneycut and son Gary of Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Kopp and daughter Betty and Mr. and Mrs. Jack McMurphy and son of Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wernick and children Patsy and Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. George Knorr and sons George, Jimmy and Tommy of Villa Park.

The party included 21 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren could not be present.

DIXON CIRCLE IS 35 YEARS OLD

The thirty-fifth anniversary of Dixon circle, No. 73, Ladies of the G. A. R., was celebrated on Monday in the G. A. R. hall. A patriotic motif decorated the refreshment table with a huge birthday cake, iced in red, white and blue, as the centerpiece.

Dean Ball entertained with patriotic selections on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Swarts, and the circle musician, Mrs. Zildah Kennaugh, played piano solos. Thirty-five members were present.

EVENING UNIT

Favorite magazines were mentioned during roll call at the February meeting for Dixon Evening Home Bureau unit last evening at the home of Mrs. Crawford Thomas. Mrs. LaVerne Highbarge reviewed an article on "Sugar Conservation," and Mrs. David Crawford presented the major study, "Developing a Healthy Personality Through Mental Hygiene," with the members assisting.

Announcement was made of semi-weekly broadcasts, between 9-9:50 a. m. each Tuesday and Thursday, from radio station WLL, concerning nurse's training in elementary nutrition.

A supper meeting was announced for next month, with Mrs. Elvina Hill as hostess.

EVENING CLUB

Miss Katharine Wright was hostess to her contract bridge club of eight Monday evening. Mrs. George Banta will be entertaining on Tuesday evening.

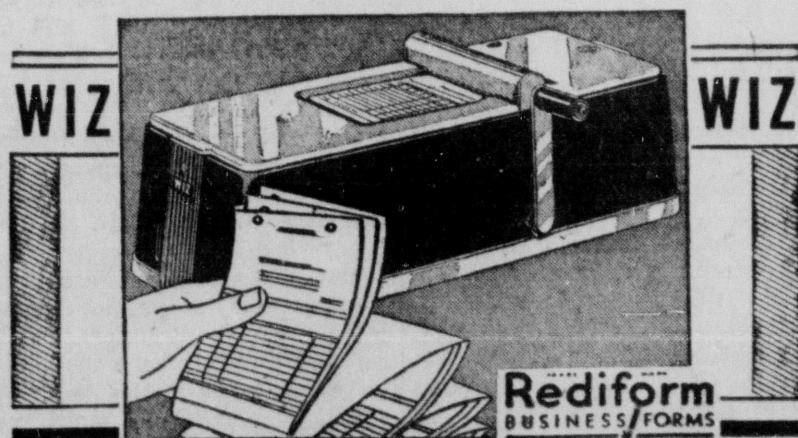

NEBRASKA GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Collins left yesterday for their home in Lyons, Neb., after visiting in Dixon since Thursday with his brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Collins of 519 North Ottawa avenue.

MRS. BAIRD IS PARTY HOSTESS

Mrs. R. L. Baird was hostess at luncheon and bridge yesterday for 16 guests, including Mrs. S. H. Kleinman of Cleveland, Ohio, who has been spending a few days here with the Victor Eichlers.

Mrs. H. J. Doran Reads Paper About Chinese Ideals

Three principal religions of China were discussed by Mrs. H. J. Doran in a paper on "Chinese Ideals of Life," before members of the Phidian Art club yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Walter.

Almost everything connected with China is old, Mrs. Doran stated. Her religions, discussed by Lin Yutang in the chapter, "Ideals of Life," from his book, "My Country and My People," antedate Christ, and include Confucianism, Taoism, and Buddhism.

Confucianists believe, Mrs. Doran explained, that they have found the true end of life. The end of life, they contend, does not lie in life after death, but in the enjoyment of a simple life before death.

The religion of common sense or the spirit of reasonableness is part of Confucian humanism. Logically, no man should be married and all men should be equal, but practically Confucianism advises marriage, and teaches authority and obedience.

Taoism, the romantic school of Chinese thought, and stands for a return to nature, and the rural ideal of life, art and literature. Taoism reflects the play mood of the Chinese people, and Confucianism, the working mood.

The real force of Taoism lies in the world of fancy and wonder it offered to the people; Confucianism offered no heaven or no hell, nor any formula for immortality of the soul.

Buddhism is regarded as the only important foreign influence that has become part and parcel of Chinese life, affecting the language, food, arts, and sculpture, and directly inspiring the people. The Buddhist, is kinder more patient and more philanthropic than others, the clubwomen learned. His philanthropy may not be worth much since every cent given and every cup of tea offered to the passing stranger is an investment in personal future happiness, but says Lin Yutang, "what religion does not use the same bait?"

Mrs. Doran concluded her paper with a discussion on the progress of Christianity in China. "We must part company with Mr. Lin Yutang," she said, "because for some reason he has an intense dislike for the western world and its attempts to Christianize China. He, himself, has renounced the Christian religion and turned pagan."

Mrs. Herman Rasch presided at the tea table.

AFTERNOON CLUB

Contract hands were dealt at three tables, when Mrs. L. C. Street entertained yesterday with a 1:30 o'clock dessert bridge for her Tuesday club. Mrs. C. F. Johnston held a guest tally in the games, in which score favors were shared by Mrs. L. C. McGinnis, Mrs. George McGraham, and Mrs. L. R. Trowbridge.

Mrs. Trowbridge is to be the next hostess.

OHIO VISITOR

Mrs. S. H. Kleinman of Cleveland, Ohio left last evening for San Francisco to visit her son, after spending a few days in Dixon as the guest of her niece, Mrs. Victor Eichler. She arrived here Saturday evening.

CAMPUS NOTES

Stanley Krahler, only son of the R. F. Krahlers of 112 Monroe avenue, expects to receive a doctor of philosophy degree in chemistry at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, in June, and soon after his graduation, will leave for Wilmington, Del., where he will become a research chemist for the Dupont company.

Stanley has been studying at Charlottesville for the past three years, following his graduation from Knox college at Galesburg. In addition to working for his degree, he has been doing research work for the Eli Lilly Drug company of Indianapolis.

Airplane Contest for Students to Get Underway Soon

The model airplane contest, to be sponsored by the Dixon Lions club, is about ready to get underway. Supplies are being purchased by the sponsors, and as soon as blueprints are received from the state department, construction work will begin. Names of all Dixon students entering the contest, will be published in Friday evening's Telegraph.

Further plans for the airplane project were discussed at yesterday's weekly luncheon of the Lions club at the Dixon hotel. Twenty-eight members were present.

Don McMahon, program chairman, introduced Principal B. J. Frazer, of the Dixon high school as guest speaker. Choosing "Democracy—the Greatest Gift to Mankind" as his subject, Principal Frazer defined democracy as "putting into practice the ideals of Christ through government, of the people, by the people and for the people on the basis that all men are created equal and that wealth and power mean nothing in the eyes of God."

"Democracy is not a form of government," the speaker said. "It is a way of looking at, or a view of government—and that is what fools all foreign powers who are continually stabbing each other in the back."

"At the end of the World war," Mr. Frazer continued, "Germany was supposed to have been financially bankrupt, yet 40 billion dollars were spent on their present-day fighting machine and to carry on the propaganda which has so completely fooled and demoralized America. Yet, because of America's central position on the face of the earth, we can swing anything our way."

"The United States," Mr. Frazer believes, "will lose the first few battles because of their mental attitude of 'live and let live', but their main idea in war today is: 'We have something to live for—we'll die for it.'"

DESSERT-BRIDGE

Mrs. G. B. Stevens and Mrs. Robert Pruitt won honors in the contract game, when Mrs. C. R. Collins was hostess to her fortnightly club last evening. A dessert course preceded the evening's play, which is to be resumed in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Arthur Crom.

World Day of Prayer Program Planned Friday

The annual World Day of Prayer will be observed in Dixon on Friday with a special program at the First Presbyterian church. Women of all churches are invited to co-operate with and attend the service, scheduled for 2:15 o'clock.

The World Day of Prayer was founded in 1887, and since then, the first Friday in Lent finds women of every race, color and creed joining in services for the welfare of the human race. The same theme and program are used throughout 50 countries, and their purpose is to include prayer for united service, that mankind may find the way by which individuals and nations can learn to live together in peace and understanding.

"I Am the Way" is the general theme chosen for this year's general program, prepared by the international committee. In cathedrals, in city and country churches, in quiet homes, in schools and colleges, and in scores of languages, services will be conducted, and the same hymns will be sung.

A Thought for Today

Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the Lord he is God; there is none else beside him.—Deuteronomy 4:35.

Forgetful youth! but now, the Power above with ease can save each object of his love; wide as his will, extends his boundless grace.—Homer.

A Gesture of Farewell

Very quietly and without much public notice, Congress is doing away with Section 7 of the Neutrality Act. That is the section which provided that no person in the United States might lend money to a foreign government at war.

Of course the section no longer means anything, now that we are actually at war, and so it must be repealed.

What is happening is more interesting than that.

It is no less than the complete wiping out of a 20-years' philosophy, drowned in the tidal wave of actual events, submerged in the flood of fast-flowing history.

After the First World War came a period of intense disillusionment. Obviously the objects for which the war was fought were imperfectly realized. How could an America still living in the "splendid isolationism" of the 19th century have been "sucked into" Europe's war? People began to question.

They found plenty that was questionable. They found smelly nests of secret diplomacy. They found that munitions had been privately manufactured and sent abroad at big profits. They found huge private loans to the allies. They deduced that these things brought us into the war. How avoid another war? Simply by not doing those things.

It was not that simple. Greater forces were at work. The Neutrality Act protected us against loan-entanglement. Not only did we make few munitions for the allies—we virtually abolished our munitions industry, so that when war came, we had to build one from scratch.

In the months before war came, no private interests had loaned money to fighting nations. Cash and carry guaranteed that such munitions as were privately furnished to belligerents were paid for on the barrel-head. No private financial interests, then, were drawing us toward war. Yet war came closer and closer, and finally it struck, treacherously and without warning.

A bigger game was being played than a mere juggling with loans and munitions. The stake was the domination of the world, and we stood in the way. Our whole outlook, geared to a microscopic view of a single phase of the First World War problem, was blind to the largest phase of the new problem. Like France, said always to be prepared for the previous war, we took all our measures to prevent the previous war. It helped to blind us to the realities of this one.

Now we are learning, the hard way. The lesson that we must look forward, not back; we must bear our full share in so arranging the world that this shall not happen again.

Fire and the War Effort

The United States must become a nation of fire fighters and fire preventers.

Fine as the regular fire-fighting and fire-preventing forces are, they cannot do the whole job. Their numbers are simply not great enough, and men whose peace-time work was connected with fire have been called into one branch or another of military or defense-production service. The only way this nation and its vitally needed resources can be protected against fire, is by aggressive effort on the part of trained and competent volunteers.

There are three distinct kinds of fire we must guard against now. First, there are those so-called "normal" fires—the fires which occur in any year as a result of human carelessness, ignorance or indifference. Unremitting care, in home and place of business, backed up by sound fire-prevention information, is the solution here.

Second, war brings with it the imminent danger of sabotage on a large scale. Recent FBI arrests and disclosures indicate the extent of the fifth column movement in this country with its thousands of axis nationals. Every factory, every power station, every bridge, every center of communication, must be guarded and guarded.

Third, war brings the possibility of bombing and incendiary attacks from the air. Those who say "It can't happen here" are blind to the grisly facts modern war has produced. In every community there should be an adequate group of volunteers trained to deal calmly and effectively with this kind of warfare.

The Office of Civilian Defense and local and civil defense agencies are doing a fine job which must be swiftly extended and perfected. Fire is high on the list of vital civil defense work. Every fire prevented, every fire quenched with minimum damage, is a direct service to the American war effort.

Ungdomsyfkyng

Not the least tragic of the many tragic things about the Hitler regime is the way it takes young children, places their minds in a straitjacket, and gives them no choice but to grow up into mental cripples.

Hitler is trying to do the same thing in Norway, and presumably in all the other countries he has conquered. In Norway, the Quisling "government" has "enacted a law" to the effect that all children between the ages of 10 and 18 must belong to a Hitler youth organization called "Ungdomsyfkyng." Belonging to an organization with a name like that is a cruel and unusual punishment in itself, though presumably less severe on that account in Norway where it can at least be pronounced. The essential cruelty remains, however, in forcing little children to subject themselves to the indoctrination of a barbarous and stifling organization of conquering strangers.

We can help the boys who are peeling potatoes in army camps by peeling our bankrolls.

Albert P. Terhune, Famous Writer and Lover of Dogs, Dies

Passed Away at "Sunnybank" Estate After Two Years Illness

Pompton Lake, N. J., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Albert Payson Terhune, whose simple stories about dogs won him international fame, died today at the age of 69. He had been in ill health two years.

Once a robust character, six feet two inches tall and weighing 230 pounds, Terhune drove himself relentlessly until he was 64. Then he retired.

Death came at Terhune's estate, "Sunnybank," where he lived with the collies which he made famous and which in turn brought him fame.

The 44-acre estate, flanked by U. S. Highway 202 and Pompton Lake about ten miles northwest of Paterson, was one of Terhune's prizes. Fear that he might lose it in his old age was a reason he gave for his long hours of work. Even after his retirement he kept up a syndicated newspaper column.

He described himself a hack writer and the first "ghost" writer. He turned out 30 motion picture stories, dabbled in music, travelled widely, collected antiques.

But the collies he raised, many of them blue ribbon winners, were his prime interest. And dogs like "Bruce" and "Lad" became the concern of thousands of readers.

He won the nickname "Iron Man" by working for years twelve hours a day the week around. At the height of his writing career his annual income was estimated as high as $90,000.

On Jan. 1, 1937 he announced his retirement, deciding that he believed with his late father, the Rev. Edward P. Terhune, that a man who reached 64 should relax.

He cut his working schedule to two days a week, keeping up only his daily syndicated column that appeared in 200 newspapers throughout the country, and writing an occasional short story.

His Dog Stories
Strangely, he did not begin writing the stories of dogs that won him fame until he was 42. For years he sought to interest editors in animal tales but it was not until 1914 that one of them, Ray Long, asked him to do a piece because one of the "Sunnybank" collies was friendly and interesting.

That collie was "Lad," later the hero of two books: "Lad: A Dog" and "Further Adventures of Lad." But he did not rush to accede to Long's request. His reply was a diatribe.

"For ten years I've been begging editors to let me write dog stories. But not an editor on earth will let me."

Travels Abroad
He traversed the wilds of Syria on horseback, lived with a tribe of Bedouins, visited leper colonies and then travelled across Egypt.

In 1894 he returned to the United States and got a job as a cub reporter on the old New York World. It was the start of a twenty-year association that culminated when he became the paper's sports editor. He also wrote a series of historical articles for The World.

His career as a novelist started in 1900 when he and his mother wrote "Dr. Dale—A Story Without A Moral." It was one of the few instances on record of mother-son collaboration.

His interest in those early days were not limited to writing. An outstanding amateur boxer, he entered the ring for exhibition matches with such old time fistic greats as "Gentleman Jim" Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons, Kid McCoy and Jim Jeffries.

A "Ghost" Writer
Some of his ring opponents, Jeffries and McCoy, were among the clients for whom Terhune later said he had written signed "ghosted" articles. Similarly, he wrote for Lillian Russell, Mrs. Leslie Carter, Terry McGovern, Laura Jean Libby, and David Belasco.

His wife, Anice Morris Stockton Terhune was a prominent musician, author and composer, so it was only natural that he should try his hand at music. In 1904 he collaborated with William C. DeMille in writing the lyrics for a comic opera "Neri"; his wife wrote the score.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON
(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)

Washington, Feb. 17.—Answers of the average citizen to government officials who have called him apathetic continue coming to this desk in unprecedented volume suggesting all is not straightened out yet.

Promised clean-out of civilian defense and repeal of congressional pensions will do much toward re-establishing that mutual confidence between citizen and government which is essential to success in our war effort, but according to my mail it leaves the chief popular plaint untouched.

The main demand is that the taxpayers and bond buyers, straining to give every possible cent to the war effort, receive some convincing assurances their money is being wisely and economically spent.

This should be easier to meet than the other two. Roosevelt could appoint some economy-minded authority whose name would inspire confidence (such a man, say, as Senator Byrd) and let him chase and eradicate waste. Or perhaps the job could be done by the Truman committee, which is now trailing the same subject, but too far behind.

A second step toward inspiring the men in the street, factory and barnyard might well be the search hereafter by Roosevelt for appointees not identified with his old new deal socializing groups.

It is a surprising fact that only one of my growing list of complainants is dissatisfied with production. Public dissatisfaction on this score seems relaxed since the reorganization of OPM and the designation of Donald Nelson to do the job, although this was the sorest spot until the change was made.

But a number of people apparently still believe the greater half of the war effort is in the hands of familiar reform faces like those of Henderson, Landis, MacLeish, Hopkins.

Columning is a two-way reporting duty. Having reported what the government officials fear concerning public apathy, I believe it is my duty to continue reporting the responses of the people who continue writing me in greater earnestness and volume than upon any subject in my previous twelve years of columnizing.

Only along this line can democracy function efficiently, drawing out into the open every well founded grievance, laying all dark suspicions out on the table for debate and classification. Only thus can harmful atmospheres be cleared.

In furtherance of that duty, here are excerpts from the last tabulated batches of mail (supplementing those reported in this column published Feb. 16):

"Cut out hundreds of new deal bureaus, and put the bureaucrats to work in industry or in the armed forces." . . . "Outlaw labor politics." . . . "We need less propaganda, fewer publicity schemes to build morale and less extravagance in government." . . . "We don't need bands and minute speakers. What we want is sincerity and the absence of deception." . . . "Let our officials try to give us wise, efficient leadership and see how our apathy disappears." . . . "Our boys have been taken away, but welders and men essential to the war effort are allowed to strike at will and slow up production. They should be put under the same discipline as soldiers." . . . "Every newspaper is to blame for the attitude each and every one of us has toward the war. Let's hear the bad news. Don't stress just the good." . . . "There isn't anything about the people's morale that calls for their being treated like a nation of sub-normal juveniles." . . . "It is possible that the American people have been under the impression that part of this tax that we pay was being used for our protection." . . . "Imagine the sale of war material to a potential enemy six months before they declare war on us." . . . "Not enough letters in the alphabet now for identification of boards in Washington." . . . "Let the politicians show their willingness to sacrifice." . . .

"It seems the worlds 'alert' and 'careful' are not to be found in the lexicon of our navy." . . . "The man next door gets relief, why should not I?" (apparently perturbed and pampereed. Why? . . . "A housecleaning in the army and navy departments." . . . "The Japanese have not been removed from areas on the Pacific coast where they endanger the safety of the country." . . . "Farmers are worried about where they are going to get help to keep their farms going." . . . "If soldiers can be sent to Ireland, why cannot

First Biological Control of Cancer Announced Today

Ann Arbor, Mich., Feb. 18.—(AP)—University of Michigan scientists, working on a theory developed by a university of Chicago surgeon, today presented what they termed "startling evidence" to confirm a belief that it is now possible to arrest one kind of cancer.

The type is that which affects the prostate gland, a cancer which they say is present in 20 per cent of all men over 60, and which kills many of them.

A report to the Brooklyn and Long Island chapters of the American College of Surgeons declared that the Michigan doctors had given "amazing relief" to about 85 per cent of the patients under observation.

The treatment, known as the Huggins method, is so new that the doctors will not say whether it is a cure. But they are enthusiastic in describing the "relief" it brings in a majority of their cases.

Relief From Suffering
The significance of the results, according to U. of M. doctors, is that the method represents the first biological control of any cancer and it provides relief from the suffering caused by a common disease of old age.

Dr. Charles B. Huggins, professor of surgery at the University of Chicago, developed the method, based on his experiments with sex hormones.

The prostate is a small sex gland that enlarges when affected with cancer. In about half the cases this cancer spreads to nearby bone tissues, causing excruciating pain, and in many cases the swollen gland affects the bladder. Both types are often fatal.

Dr. Huggins reported to the American Medical Association last June his belief that male sex hormones were responsible for this cancer. By injecting male sex hormones he found the tumor growth was accelerated. By depressing the production of the male sex hormone, he was able to retard the cancer. His treatment is castration.

Nelson Orders No Holiday Shutdown

Washington, Feb. 18.—(AP)—War Production Director Donald M. Nelson told the nation today it could not afford a Washington's Birthday shutdown "anywhere on the production line."

He asked every plant to cancel its holiday on Monday, February 23, if it had scheduled one and settle the labor terms later.

Nelson's statement said in part: "The United States is fighting for its life. I mean that. We're on the spot. We're paying heavily for our complacency, for our selfishness, for our failure to peel off our shirts and do a job."

"A lot of good American boys right now are face to face with a grim, determined, well-equipped enemy. They're taking punishment—taking it with courage and in the spirit that has always animated American troops. But those boys can't stop planes and tanks with their bare hands. They can't get where they have got to go without what it takes to get there. Only we can give it to them."

"If in any plant a holiday is scheduled for next Monday—cancel it."

"If in any plant there is disagreement as to the terms under which work will be done on Washington's Birthday—do the job and settle later. We in the War Production Board will help you adjust it if you wish. The important thing is to get the work done."

North Shore's Train Again Running Into Chicago Loop Today

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Service to and from the Chicago loop on the Chicago, North Shore & Milwaukee railroad, interrupted since Feb. 1 because of an inter-union dispute, was restored today.

Under an agreement reached Sunday, employees of the Rapid Transit (elevated) lines operated the North Shore trains within the city and North Shore crews operated them north of the city terminals.

MacArthur get reinforcements? . . . "Could we, via the Aleutians, slam into one of the islands just north of Japan proper, and use them as bombing bases for a week to destroy Japan and then get out?" . . .

But perhaps the whole thought of these people is wrapped up in an editorial, sent by a reader, from the Glen Falls, N. Y., Post Star, which concluded:

"Mr. President and associated leaders, we the people are not being disloyal, disunited, unpatriotic in throwing back the ball of criticism to you in this way. We are in a complaining mood, yes. But we are not complaining about the work and sacrifice which has come to us. . . . The evolution of the war is not up to us, it is up to you. We cannot lead. We can only follow. We are eager to follow."

"Lead us keenly and we will show you an invincible tidal wave of fighting people!"

Hold Everything

"Some people make me tired—you don't hear me griping because I can't buy any more tires!"

Strub and Shultz, and Blackhawk Bowlers Move Up In City League

MYERS & NOLAN REMAIN IN FIRST PLACE OF LEAGUE

R. Hoyle Rolls High Game For Evening With 223

The City League went into action last night at the Dixon Recreation alleys without any great upheavals from the ordinary trend of things. However some of the teams on the lower rungs of the league ladder cast their glances in the direction of that first-place monopolizing set of keggers, Myers & Nolan, and proceeded to roll themselves a notch or two closer to the top. The Blackhawk outfit pulled away from a tie with the Reynolds team by winning two from the Royal Blues and taking possession of third place. The Strub & Shultz quintet made the longest hop of the evening, for they jumped out of a lowly seventh position to a tie for fifth place with the Royal Blue.

The feature of the evening was a few bowlers who applied their aiming at high individual scores. R. Hoyle rolled out a 223 for the night's high game and was closely followed by M. Miller with a 217. F. Smith and Hahn got into the 200 bracket when each of them rolled a 215.

The Myers and Nolan bunch increased their past margin of wins, remained in the first place running and defeated the three Deuces two out of three. R. Hoyle set the pace for the winners with a series of 565 and Hahn led the losers with a 584.

The Blackhawk bowlers, in taking sole possession of third place, defeated the Meyers Royal Blue team two games and dropped a third. G. Stevens ran up the high count for the Blackhawks with a 501 series. F. Smith rolled a 582 series for the losers best.

The Post Office team moved a little closer to the league leaders and retained their second place standing by winning three straight from the Meister Brau bowlers. Miller rolled the high score for the mailmen with 522 and Grow was high man for the losers with 474.

The Strub & Shultz outfit made their big leap up the ladder by turning back the Reynolds Wire team two out of three. 'Boss' Strub knocked over the most pins for his Oilers with a series of 526 and Fordham of the losers was high for the match with 549.

Shabbona Defeats Steward Last Night

Steward high cagers were down last night by her visitors, Shabbona, 47 to 29, Shabbona's margin of victory rested solely on her advantage of height and it's use in scoring follow-in shots. The game cannot be judged on the score for the Steward cagers put up a game battle and at half-time it was still anyone's ball game. Only in the fourth quarter did Shabbona really run away with her hosts and she outscored Steward 12 to 3. Shabbona made a full night of it when her Ponies defeated the Steward second string 29 to 11.

In the varsity game the first quarter ended in a deadlock at 9 all but Shabbona managed to grab a four point margin at half time which left the score at 24 to 20. In the third period the visitors' height began to tell its tale and Steward was outscored 11 to 6. Shabbona did her worst damage in the fourth quarter as she increased her margin by 9 counts. The game ended 47 to 29 favoring Shabbona.

Richardson and Anderson scored high for the hosts with 9 and 7 tallies respectively. Merriman, Shabbona pivot-man, and Derr playing at guard scored high for the winners with 17 and 18 points respectively.

Joe Gordon, Yanks, To Spring Camp

Los Angeles, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Given a rousing "happy birthday" sendoff by his in-laws, Joe Gordon, custodian of the second sack for the World Champion New York Yankees, climbed into the family automobile and headed for Florida, but he heamed like a young man just entering the twenties as he tucked his wife and youngster into the car, kissed his mamma-in-law goodbye and drove away.

Gordon looked in great shape after a winter of hunting and bowling at his Eugene, Ore., home. "I hope they don't try me out at first base again," he grinned, recalling his experience at the position last spring before he took over undisputed possession of the keystone berth.

Gordon, making certain that Manager Joe McCarthy wouldn't get the wrong idea, said he thought young Jerry Priddy might handle first base. Priddy is the young man who went up last year as a rookie second baseman and failed to oust Gordon, who was given a trial at first but wasn't so hot there, if you recall. "Mind you," said Gordon, "I'm not the manager and Joe McCarthy knows what's best, but I believe Jerry could step in and deliver the goods."

Streator High Retains Unscathed Record

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Streator and Paris, two of the state's undefeated high school basketball teams, continued their winning ways last night, but two others—St. Bede of Peru and Melvin—fell by the way.

Streator had to snap St. Bede's string last night to keep its own intact. The Bulldogs won, 33 to 23, running their list of consecutive victories to 22 and stopping St. Bede's at the same figure.

Previous to last night St. Bede had won 50 consecutive athletic contests since March 1, 1941—three in winding up the last basketball season, 17 in baseball, eight in football and 22 in basketball this season.

Paris ran its brilliant streak to 28 last night by trouncing Marshall 69 to 26.

Melvin, after winning 24 games in a row, bowed to Strawn, 39 to 36.

Mere Laxatives Often Not Enough

In these days of worry, nervous strain and faulty habits, it's no wonder the stomach sometimes gets overworked and clogged bowels often "cry out" for help. More than just a laxative is often needed. When you feel low, nervous, tickly and played-out, what you may need is to wake up both the stomach and bowels in their digestive and eliminative functions. You can do it without drastic drugs. Just get Dr. Peter Fabre's genuine stomachic tonic prescription called ALPEN KRAUTER, today. ALPEN KRAUTER is a great deal more than just another laxative. It is a real internal medicine. It helps the stomach to digest food. It regulates the bowels, increases elimination by way of the kidneys. It helps ease away that exaggerated feeling of bowel gas and bloot. So don't wait. Ask for ALPEN KRAUTER today.

MARTY SERVO IN REVENGE BOUT WHIPS LEW JENKINS

Philadelphia, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Marty Servo, family honor re-venge by his savage pasting of Lew Jenkins last night, now is gunning for Red Cochrane and the world's welterweight championship. "Marty had trouble getting better 140 pounds for this fight," declared Al Weill, Servo's manager, after the young coast guardman from Schenectady, N. Y., virtually blasted the ring career of the former lightweight fistful by winning a decisive 10-round decision at the arena.

"He'll never be able to make the weight again," Weill continued. "He wants to fight Cochrane now for the welterweight crown. He's the coming champ. I tell you. This was his 47th fight. In all these bouts he has lost only to Ray 'Sugar' Robinson."

Servo is a cousin of Lou Ambers who absorbed a terrific three-round beating before dropping the lightweight crown to Jenkins.

From the very start Servo, constantly moving forward and landing "one, two" punches with lefts to the head and rights to the body, battered the Texan around the ring. He had Jenkins reeling in nearly every round, but the former playboy who dropped his crown to Sammy Angott a few months back, managed to stay upright except near the end of the seventh. Then he went down for a count of nine from a savage left hook.

At the end Jenkins' face a gory red from cuts over both eyes, a bloody nose and bruised lips. Servo was a scratch on his cheek. Jenkins didn't win a single round.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. (Wide World Sports Columnist)

New York, Feb. 18.—(Wide World)—Look for the first robin of spring any day now, folks. . . . The first of the new crop of football heroes has arrived. . . . Ed Danforth of the Atlanta Journal says that Charley Trippi, the Wilkes Barre, Pa., boy at Georgia can heave a 30-yard forward pass and by the time the receiver has straightened out to run, there is Charley alongside him yelling for a lateral.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE—The Fort Worth (Tex.) Junior Chamber of Commerce will throw a luncheon for Rogers Tornsby Feb. 25 and is inviting baseball men and sports writers from throughout the Nation. . . . An all Chinese hockey team is playing in Canada and making out pretty well. . . . The National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress is planning a national registration day for all prospective players March 30. . . . Looks like Uncle Sam was about six weeks ahead on that one. . . . The sandlotter's idea is that anyone who'd like to play can sign up at the nearest sporting goods store and an effort will be made to find teams for all of them.

R. G. Lynch, Milwaukee Journal: "Ski jumping is the only sport in which the athletes are at the mercy of kibitzers. All sports have wise-aces who tell competitors, 'You would do better if you did it thus or so.' In skiing they make judges out of the kibitzers and the judges' make the sport ridiculous."

QUOTE, UNQUOTE—Oscar Vit: "If Ty Cobb were playing today, he would steal 150 bases a season. The pitchers don't bother to develop a fake movement to first or second any more. Runners are seldom picked off the bags."

HOT STOVE WARMUP—Billy (Sonny) Skiff, Jr., whose pop caught for Newark 15 years ago, will get a tryout with the Bears this spring. He's a catcher, too. . . . Eddie Froelich, trainer for Chicago's Blackhaws and White Sox, isn't worried about the prospect of 14 night games. He was at Kansas City last summer and claims he only saw the sun on Sundays.

CLEANING THE CUFF—

The Australia-New Zealand Hockey Match, involving teams of soldiers who never were on skates until they reach Canada last year, will supply the comedy for Montreal's "Victory loan" clash between the old Maroons and old Canadiens. . . . When Mrs. Ed Weiner, wife of the old-time N. Y. U. footballer, heard about a West Point appointment being reserved for Colin Kelly, Jr., she wrote to George Halas to save a spot on the Chicago Bears 15 years from now for "Hoss" Weiner, Jr.

Inventory of Automobile Graveyards is Planned

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Eugene L. Dunne of Chicago will direct an immediate inventory of all automobile graveyards in the northern half of Illinois, southern Wisconsin and Iowa, the Bureau of Industrial Conservation announced yesterday.

The checkup, which will produce nationally an estimated 3,000,000 tons of scrap metal, will be carried out by WPA workers using classified directories as a guide, officials said.

Upset Is Scored Over Lee Center by West Brooklyn

A diminutive West Brooklyn quintet journeyed over to Lee Center last night for a basketball game. The Brooklyn coach carried five men on the trip. He wasn't being optimistic or anything for he just couldn't help himself. West Brooklyn high has a total male enrollment of five. They returned home after the game feeling rather "chippy" for they had subdued the Centerites 34 to 33.

West Brooklyn took a first quarter advantage over the Lee Center second string which started the game. After Brooklyn had a 12 point margin the Lee Center varsity team entered the fray but the visitors still managed to hold a 17 to 4 lead at the end of the first frame. The second quarter was a case of even-up ball with both clubs scoring 6 points. The half ended at 23 to 10 still in favor of the Brooklyn boys.

Lee Center outplayed her opponents completely in the second half with a 7 to 5 margin in the third and a 16 to 6 margin in the fourth; but couldn't quite overtake the boys from Brooklyn as the final gun sounded. The score rested in Brooklyn's favor 34 to 33. In the last thirty seconds of play the Centerites scored a charity shot and followed it with a goal but just missed getting another tally before the game ended which would have given the hosts a victory.

Carlson, playing at center for Lee Center, paced his team with five field goals while Gehant, Brooklyn forward, and Ege a center counted 15 and 12 points respectively for the winners.

Rebekah Meeting

The Rebekahs held their regular meeting at the hall last Friday evening. After the regular business session was held Mrs. Carl Kindelberger served a delicious lunch. There was a large crowd attending the meeting.

Stern-Betz Nuptials

Miss Laberta Stern, daughter of Mrs. Jack Atherton of Paw Paw and Homer Betz, son of Mrs. Sadie Betz of Paw Paw, were united in marriage December 26, 1941 in Missouri. Both are graduates of the Paw Paw high school. The groom is employed in a factory in Genoa, in which village the happy couple are making their home. Both the bride and groom are lifelong residents of this community and well and favorably known. Best wishes are extended to this couple as they start on their matrimonial journey through life.

Missionary Speaks

Irl McCallister of the Scandinavian Alliance Mission in Chicago gave an interesting and exciting message before a large crowd at the Paw Paw Baptist church Sunday evening. Mr. McCallister told about his experiences on the S. S. Zam Zam before and after it was sunk by a Nazi sea raider. He also told about the horrible conditions that existed on a Nazi supply ship in which he and his wife and 150 other missionaries and their families were imprisoned for five weeks. Mr. McCallister told the group that the sacrifices they are called on to make are very insignificant compared to what they went through on that Nazi supply ship. The message was very favorably received by the crowd attending.

Attends Conference

Miss Eulalia Breese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Breese attended the Illinois classical conference held at the Hotel Knickerbocker, Chicago. Miss Breese is at the head of the Latin department at the Mendota high school. While Miss Breese was absent a substitute was put in her place.

20th Century Club

The members of the 20th Century club met at the home of Mrs. S. A. Wright last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Maude Loyd, Mrs. Jeanette Fleming and Mrs. Donald Flewellin had charge of a very interesting program which was patriotic. Mrs. F. E. Nangle furnished the patriotic music for the occasion. Abraham Lincoln and George Washington were the men discussed during the program. A very delicious two-course luncheon was served. At the close of the afternoon following the luncheon, a George Washington contest was held. Mrs. Sadie Betz was presented with a nice going-away present.

40th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ferguson celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Thursday, February 12, at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Smith. A fine dinner was served in honor of the occasion. The following were the guests for the occasion: Mr. and Mrs. Alton Fleenor and Kenneth Ferguson of Rochelle; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chowning, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Iverson, and Clarence George Eich.

Red Cross Meeting

The following attended the Lee County Red Cross meeting which was held at the Loveland Community House in Dixon last Friday evening. Those attending the very interesting meeting were: Dr. S. R. Dickie, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Lewis Rogers, Miss Corda

Rogers, Mrs. Orville Henry and Mrs. Mabel Worsley.

World Day of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer service will be held at the Paw Paw Baptist church this Friday afternoon, February 20. Those in charge of the services are the presidents of the missionary societies of the three churches. Mrs. Henry Faber is the chairman and is assisted by Mrs. James H. Haggerty and Mrs. Fred Grundenman.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoelzer attended a party at the Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Kidd home at Troy Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rhoads and family were in Dixon on Wednesday.

Mrs. Lewis Shaddick and daughter, Joyce, and Miss Erna Radtke were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Radtke of Van Orin.

Mrs. Frank Wheeler entertained the members of the Presbyterian missionary society at her home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Gibbs and son Charles and Mrs. Tillie Weaver were Aurora business callers Saturday.

Mrs. John Hawbaker spent Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rhoads.

The members of the Eastern Star held a regular meeting at the hall last Tuesday night. Mrs. Robert Firkins served a delicious lunch for the occasion.

Week end visitors at the Orville Sutton home at Mendon were Gene Fisher of Mendota and Elmer, Laura and Alice Eich.

James Ketchum of Lockport spent the week end with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Zuber, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoelzer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Frost and children spent Tuesday evening at the Mr. and Mrs. Zuber home.

Mrs. Sadie Betz will make her new home at Genoa with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Betz.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hinkston were Paw Paw visitors Sunday. Mr. Hinkston is at Camp Grant and Mrs. Hinkston is staying at DeKalb at the present.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grove and daughter Bonnie Mae of Batavia were Saturday evening callers at the Raymond Willard home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Foster and family and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rhoads and family were supper guests at the John Hawbaker home Friday night.

Miss Carol Fightmaster of Rockford and Miss Lucille Fightmaster of Aurora spent the week end at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fightmaster. Donald Urey, who is in Hollywood, California, was employed last week in the printing trade.

Mrs. John Prentice and Fremont Wiley called on their father, Frank Wiley at his home at Scarborough on Sunday. Mr. Wiley was taken quite ill Sunday but is better at this writing.

Thinks Offensive by United Nations Needed to Triumph

Sydney, Australia, Feb. 18.—(AP)—Appealing to the United Nations to take the offensive, search out the enemy and fight, Lieut. Governor Hubert Van Mook, of the Netherlands East Indies, declared today that the policy of "constantly retreating to prepared positions could lead to a position in which the allies might lose the war."

"We'll fight in the Netherlands East Indies as long as humanly possible," he said.

Van Mook arrived in Sydney today from the United States, where he had conferred on cooperation in the Pacific with officials in Washington.

"We have been faced with the prospect of having to fight alone so long that if we have to do it perhaps it would not be such a great shock," the Dutch official said at a press conference. x x x

Speculates

"If the Japanese get the Netherlands East Indies I think there is a good chance that they will not go straight on toward Australia but would swing in to help the axis win the war by moving against the Middle East and Russia."

"I think they would confine themselves to nuisance raids against Australia but Australia may depend on it that the Japanese would deal with her later on. The Japanese are using ships recklessly. I think we could emulate them."

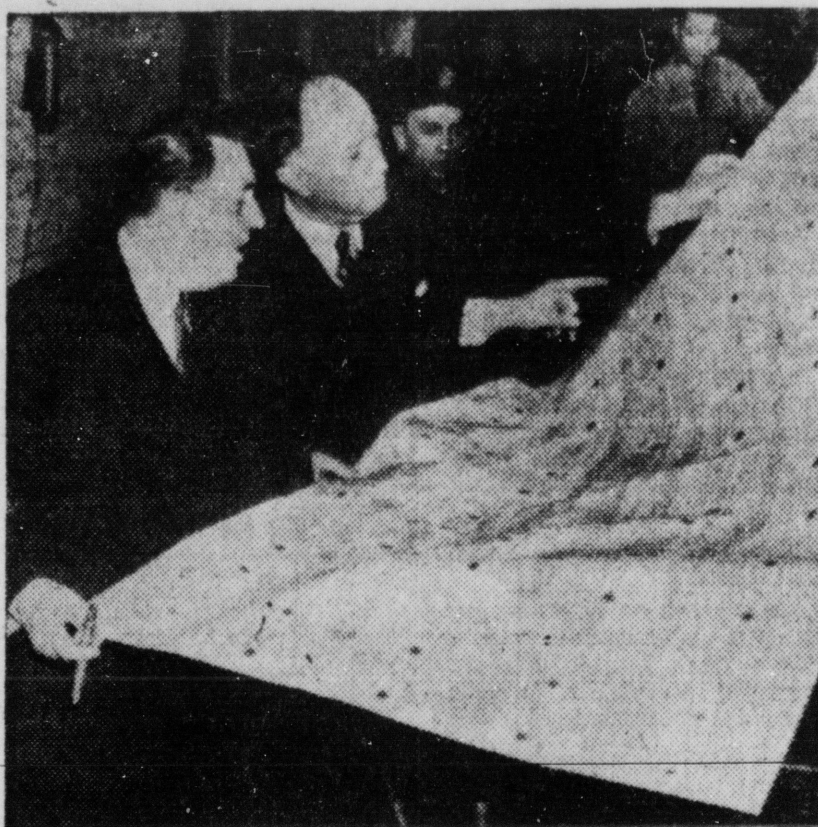

Speaking of his trip to the United States, he said he had not found any under-estimation of the Pacific war in America. It has taken Americans time to awaken to its implications, he added, but now their attention is turning more to the Pacific than to Europe.

"They and their President are convinced of the value of attack," he said. "They'll go about things in a very American and very drastic way in the next few months, swinging over entirely to war productions."

KILLED BY TRAIN

State's Farms Have 25 Different Kinds Of Shrubs Growing

There are at least 25 varieties of shrubs growing native in many of Illinois counties which are desirable for landscape use about the farmstead, H. W. Gilbert, extension landscape specialist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, has found. These and many others are available at nurseries in the state, he said.

The exact use of these shrubs and the numbers of each to use in a satisfactory landscape development is a matter of fitness, relationship and adaptability to the situation, Gilbert says. For example, the presence of other varieties of shrubs already on the grounds, the size of the grounds and buildings and the hardness of the shrubs, will influence the selection of additional varieties.

Gilbert gives these suggestions to those planning to use shrubbery on their farmstead: "Objectable views should be screened, shrubbery being selected for this purpose that will ultimately grow to the desired height. There should be a sequence of color, texture and form in using several varieties together, or else the varieties used should be limited. One variety, with a larger growing heavier textured variety at each end and somewhere near the center of a shrub boundary or screen planting containing 50 plants, would be more pleasing to the eye and would show better landscape judgment than 30 varieties. Often the best solution may be the use of a single variety. Simplicity is better than a jungle of confusing varieties."

"If one will learn the habits of shrubs, he can largely control the conformation of a shrub mass as it grows through the years. For example, leggy plants like wahoo, winterberry and mock orange may be used back of the lower, more bushy forms such as Regal privet or fragrant sumac. When plants of a single variety are close together in a large mass, they will grow taller when grown singly or spaced farther apart. "When several varieties are used, they generally appear best in single-variety groups. The varieties may be arranged according to their similarity in form, texture or color and in conformity with the entire picture in order to obtain adequate balance, focalization and simplicity. Plants that are striking to the eye because of their prominent form or color should be used at places where it is desirable to focalize the degree of attention that is merited."

"A screen planting, a yard boundary or a foundation planting generally will appear best when foliage reaches the ground rather than exhibiting a leggy or half-clad appearance. Leggy plants can be faced downward with lower or spreading plant forms. In most instances, this will demand more ground surface for the ultimate growth of the plants."

"One should consider shrubs for their form, fruit and foliage values as well as for flowering habits," the landscape specialist said. "Remember that any plant will flower better if it gets adequate sunshine."

In selecting plants for the foundation planting, form, texture and foliage are more important than bloom. A deep, cool green will accent agriculture better than a brilliant array of colors. Tasteless restraint is generally more important than large numbers or an exhibition of high cost materials, he said.

New Bulletin Is Farmer's Text Of '42 Oat Varieties

Urbana, Ill. — Acre-yields of oats in tests conducted with 71 varieties the past 12 years, which are published in a new bulletin just issued by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, are guiding Illinois farmers as to the best varieties to plant this year.

"Spring Oat Varieties for Illinois," Bulletin No. 481, reports that acre-yields of oats in Illinois have increased the past 45 years as a result of extensive use of better adapted, early-maturing varieties.

Of the varieties tested for three years or more, Marion, Iowa, Albion, Richland and Gopher yielded the most grain at the DeKalb field in northern Illinois, Marion, Columbia, Boone, Kanota and Gopher led at the Urbana station in central Illinois, while Columbia, Brunner, Burt (C. I. 293), Markton x Rainbow (C. I. 334), and Marion were best at the Alhambra field in southern Illinois.

Columbia can be considered the best all-around variety for southern Illinois until some new varieties demonstrate their superiority to it. Although Marion has produced the highest yield of grain on both the northern and central Illinois fields during the four years it has been included in tests, some of the new selections out of Victoria x Richland have produced more for the one or two years they were tested. These include Tama, Vicland and Boone.

Varities that yielded the most grain in northern and central Illinois produced less than average yields of straw. The reverse was true in southern Illinois, but there the average yield of straw is low.

Percentage of groats is apparently a better measure of quality than weight a bushel. Marion had the highest average yield of groats of any variety in three-year tests.

Oats seeded with a drill at the rate of eight pecks to the acre gave the highest yields. Broadcast seedings at 10 pecks gave as good yields as drilled seedings at this rate. Seeding oats in 16-inch drill rows resulted in lower yields than drilling them in eight-inch rows, but the wide space between drill rows favored the growth of clover.

Authors of "Spring Oat Varieties for Illinois" are G. H. Dungan, professor of crop production; O. T. Bonnett, assistant professor of plant genetics; and W. L. Burlison, head of the agronomy department.

Copies may be obtained free from farm advisers or the university.

Democrats Fail to Endorse Anyone at Springfield Session

Failure to Vote Party Support of McKeough Comes as Surprise

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 18.—(AP)—The makeup of the Democratic organization ticket for the April 14 primary was left in doubt today after the party state central committee, meeting late yesterday, failed to vote any endorsements for senator or state officers.

Chairman Arthur A. Sullivan said the committee decided to defer the selection of a ticket until after Feb. 28, the date ending the period for primary filings and withdrawals. The postponement, he said, was at the request of Congressman Raymond S. McKeough, Chicago Democratic organization candidate for senator.

The committee's failure to endorse McKeough's candidacy occasioned some surprise, since Sullivan had announced in advance that his name would be submitted for approval.

At least six of the 15 downstate members of the committee were absent from the meeting, but Sullivan denied any opposition to a McKeough endorsement was expressed in the closed session. The chairman quoted McKeough as telling the committeemen he did not consider it fair to ask an endorsement until it is known who the candidates are to be.

Courtney Uncertain This reflected the uncertainty about whether Cook county State's Attorney Thomas J. Courtney would enter the senatorial contest against McKeough and Alderman Paul H. Douglas of Chicago. Courtney backers have said several downstate committeemen would support him if he runs.

Chairman Sullivan told reporters the state committee "would be in a better position to decide on endorsements after the filing period" and added it was "still unsettled" who would get the organization support for congressional at-large and state treasurer.

"We ought to know more about that by the end of the week," he said. The period for primary filings ends next Monday, Feb. 23. Prior to the committee's meeting, McKeough received an informal endorsement by about 300 downstate Democrats who attended a luncheon sponsored by the state committee.

Stelle's Proposal Former Governor John Stelle, urging an end to past factional quarrels, proposed the endorsement by saying:

"I suggest that those of us here give Raymond McKeough our endorsement; let those who are for him stand and be counted right now."

guests remained seated, and Stelle said, "it looks like it's unanimous."

"It is unanimous," responded Chairman Sullivan.

Mayor Edward J. Kelly also appealed for united party support for McKeough, saying "sectional and factional lines" should be erased in the interest of unity behind President Roosevelt.

State committeemen who did not attend yesterday's session included Charles V. O'Hern, Peoria; John J. Hallihan, East St. Louis; A. M. Thompson, Marion; John W. Yantis, Shelbyville; Ray D. Stout, Glenarm and Francis J. Loughnan, Joliet. Several other absentees were represented by proxies.

Milk Price in Chicago Marketing Area Drops

Chicago, Feb. 18.—(AP)—The blended price for January milk delivered by farmers in the Chicago federal milk marketing area decreased 6 cents under the December, 1941, price, the Marketing Administration announced today, but rose 81 cents above the January, 1941, price.

The blended price is $2.54 a hundredweight of 3.5 test, 70-mile zone deliveries. Computation of the blended price is based on prices which handlers pay farmers for their supplies according to utilization in four different classifications.

Brooks Says People Do Not Realize Magnitude of Job America Faces

Woodstock, Ill., Feb. 18.—(AP)—Sen. C. Wayland Brooks believes the people of the United States do not realize the gigantic program to which the country is dedicated, asserting that the country is fighting three nations and is committed to continue fighting until the dictators are conquered.

The senator spoke at a Washington-Lincoln celebration last night. He left immediately afterward by plane for Washington to aid the fight on the senate floor today, he said, to revoke the measure providing pensions for congressmen.

Brooks said "we must" dominate the Atlantic and the sky above it for 3,000 miles before we can land one single soldier on hostile land. It means that we must dominate the Mediterranean and the skies above it, the Pacific—which we do not tonight or we would send help to General MacArthur—and the skies above it for 11,000 miles before we can start the conquering process."

DOUGLAS TAKES STUMP

Marion Oats Do Not Have To Be Treated For Smut Control

Urbana, Ill.—Because of its outstanding resistance to smut and rust diseases, the Marion variety of oats need not be treated for smut control. Illinois farmers making oat-seeding preparations are given this reassurance by Benjamin Koehler, chief in plant pathology, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

This not only saves time and money but also conserves mercury, of which there is a shortage because of war needs. Boone, Vicland and Tama are other new varieties that are smut resistant and will not require seed treatment, but so far Marion is most popular because of its proved worth.

About 180,000 bushels of Marion seed oats were certified in Illinois in 1941 by 136 farmers. This will plant about 2 per cent of the acreage in Illinois, and additional acreages will be planted with seed obtained from Iowa. With a normal crop this year, seed of this superior variety should be available to all who wish it for planting in 1943.

Other oat varieties should be treated with Ceresan which is still on the market. Treatments will result in better yield and better quality of grain even though there was no conspicuous smut infection in the field from which the seed came. The grain should be treated two, or preferably four, weeks before planting. This not only saves money but also conserves the mercury supply, since only half as much is needed when the treatments is made two to four weeks in advance as is called for in the directions on the can.

Tests at the Illinois station show that one-fourth ounce of Ceresan applied two weeks before sowing and mixed well with the seed in a mixing machine is just as effective as one-half ounce applied one or two days before sowing. In both cases, perfect smut control and equally good yields were obtained. Furthermore no more than these amounts should be used, because an excess causes harm.

Formaldehyde is second choice and should be used only when the seed is known to carry smut infection and when Ceresan is not available. Formaldehyde gives perfect smut control when properly used, but it has a tendency to weaken the seed so that top yields are not attained. Koehler said.

South Carolina's population jumped from 1,738,765 in 1930 to 1,905,815 in 1940.

There are 9000 facets in the eye of a June bug, while some insects have as high as 25,000.

First-Class Fighting Man

BACK of the American soldier is a tradition of valor that extends unbroken from Lexington and Saratoga to the mountains of Batan. Give him training and equipment and you can trust him to lick anything that moves on feet or wheels or wings.

The United States Army has a secret weapon . . . secret only because it can never be comprehended by dictators. It is an army of free Americans, willingly serving the land that made them free.

Today your country needs this spirit in its fighting men as never before. Here is your opportunity. Men 18 and 19 years old, with keenness, enthusiasm and daring, are especially desired.

Thousands of patriotic young men are entering the Army through voluntary enlistment and the Selective Service System, and you can be one of them, sharing the comradeship and the splendid training of Army life. On the ground or in the air, there's a place where you are needed, now.

Call at the nearest Army Recruiting Station and ask for complete details.

Volunteers Wanted for Parachute Duty

Qualified men may now enlist direct from civilian life for service with the Army's parachute troops. Volunteers must be from 18 to 30 years old, alert, active, aggressive fighters, with strength and endurance. You can obtain full information from your local Army Recruiting Officers.

U.S. ARMY RECRUITING SERVICE

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BLDG., DIXON, ILLINOIS

Lee Center

Mrs. Maude Ford and daughter Betty Jane entertained their respective Sunday school classes with a Valentine party Saturday afternoon, which featured games and refreshments.

Lee Center real estate has taken in a boom recently and there are several desirable residence properties for sale.

Mrs. Marion Wheeler, Mary Alice and Vivian of Thomson spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Blackwell and daughters Sallie and Joyce are moving this week to Mendota where Mr. Blackwell is employed by the Conkey Manufacturing Company. They will be greatly missed in this community.

Some twenty-five members and three visitors attended the Ladies' Circle meeting at the church Thursday, which followed the scramble dinner. It was decided to hold a second cookie sale Saturday and a school dinner Thursday, Feb. 19. Mrs. Justina Jeanblanc is chairman of this committee which includes Mmes. Tillie Brasel, Josephine Cox, Mae Dishong, Jennie Fuller, Marion John, Mattie Klausen, Hattie Lippincott, Anna Mynard, Adeline Pomeroy, Melissa Richardson, Stella Vivian, Amelia Clayton, Eleanor Bayler, Mrs. Elsie Kenney and Mrs. Jessie Blackwell were each presented with a large crystal sandwich plate by the circle as they are moving from this area.

Mrs. Gordon Lovett is visiting a sister in North Carolina.

Mrs. Malinda Aschenbrenner returned Saturday from a visit with the Harry Olmsteads at Ottawa.

Dorothy Hayes, local school student who had been making her home with the John Blackwells will now stay with Alice Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Nate Gugerty and children have moved from near Ohio to the Harley Clink house and the former will be employed on the farm of George King.

At the recent annual meeting of the Bradford Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company in the Hark school, John Hillison was re-elected manager and O. S. Bayler was elected as new manager. Last Tuesday night the company met at the Mrs. C. W. Ross house in this village for organization and re-elected officers as follows: William Brucker, Franklin Grove, president; John Hillison, Amboy, vice president; O. S. Bayler, Lee Center, secretary; E. A. Pomeroy, Lee Center, treasurer. Other managers include: C. W. Ross, Amboy; Henry Roemmick, Sublette; Clarence Hart, Ashton. A Dixon auditor has just completed an audit of the secretary's and treasurer's books.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jacob and Bobbie Lane of Mendota were dinner and supper guests at the W. J. Leake home.

There will be preaching service by the Rev. G. A. Cox next Sunday as usual at 11 o'clock, Central War-time. Choir practice Thursday at 7:30 p. m. with Mrs. Esther Kalsted.

It is reported that the Henry Ulrich farm and the stone quarry property brought $10,000 at the partition sale at the Dixon court house last Saturday.

Mrs. W. J. Leake and Mrs. C. W. Ross attended a one o'clock Guild luncheon at the Methodist church in Amboy Thursday.

Mrs. Sara Degner and her committee held another cookie sale Saturday for the Ladies' Circle and realized a neat sum despite the stormy weather.

Pfc. Roland Ulrich plays basketball on the Division All-Star basketball team at Camp Polk, La. They played Opelousas, La., on President Roosevelt's birthday, an exhibition benefit game, winning by a good score, and also played at Beaumont, Texas, Saturday, in which they were again victorious with a score of 57-40. Roland has been transferred from Company A to the new Company C which has just been formed in the 45th Med. Pfc. Reuben McBride is still in Company A. An interesting card has been received from Roland and Elaine, whose many friends here are always glad to hear from them.

Chalmers Glenn and Mrs. Floyd Glenn arrived here from Delavan Friday. Mrs. Chalmers Glenn, who has been here for the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Foote, recovering from an appendectomy, returned home with Mr. Glenn Sunday. Mrs. Floyd Glenn remained to assist her sister-in-law, Mrs. Foote. Earl Carlson and Mrs. Linda Brasel who have been ill, are improved.

Mrs. William Jacob and Bobbie Lane of Mendota and Mrs. W. J. Leake recently visited Mrs. Stanley Myers and the later arrival—Warren Stanley—at Arlington Heights. Both mother and son are getting along fine and Bobbie Lane was much pleased with his new cousin who is now over a month old.

Alice Parlin, Esther Conibear, Malinda Aschenbrenner and Genevieve Frost compose the Rebekah committee to entertain Friday evening, March 6. A school of instruction will be held soon.

School Notes

Lee Center Community high school No. 251, was one of the nine high school under the supervision of Lee County Selective Service Board No. 2 designated for the registration of men 20 to 45 Monday, Feb. 16. Supt. T. L. Traugher acted as chief registrar. He was assisted by ex-servicemen, W. G. Taylor, Howard Wellman, Carl Maves, Bowden Jesse and Community High School Director Vernon Schnell.

Lee Center's basketball squads registered three victories Friday evening, the first team defeating Malden, 46-26; the second team 35-11 and the graders won from Harmon, 35-10. We play West Brooklyn here Tuesday and Ohio there Friday.

The homemaker topic for Monday night of this week is "Vitamins Make a Difference".

Scouts Get Charter

Troop 132, Boy Scouts of America, or the Lee Center Community troop, received its charter Thursday evening, Feb. 12, 1942. Impressive investiture ceremonies were conducted by Enos Keithley of Dixon, field commissioner of the Black Hawk area. Roy Willard, field executive of the Black Hawk area, was in charge of the program and presented the charter to the local troop committee.

Paul Armstrong, chairman of the Dixon city commission was present as a guest of the troop.

There were present at the impressive investiture service and program about 100 parents and friends of scouting. The Lee Center troop, under the direction of Scoutmaster George Stanger, presented the qualifications of a tenderfoot Scout and demonstrated signaling which is one of the requirements of a second class Scout. Cecil Nattress, Cub leader, presented his troop of cubs, who demonstrated individually, parts of the cub program of scouting.

Those boys who were "dubbed" the rank of "Tenderfoot Scout" by Mr. Keithley were:

Eagle patrol—

Jack Carlson, patrol leader;

Cobra patrol—

Bob Pomeroy, patrol leader;

Jim Gentry, George Johnson,

Dick Johnson, Melvin Erlenbough, Melvin Haefner, Bud Gentry. Scribe—Howard Jeanblanc. Senior patrol leader—Gerald Crull.

Cub Scouts taking part in the program were Bob Sondgeroth, Wayne Starnes, Charles Starnes, Bruce Conibear, Kay Gentry, Tommy Traugher, Howard Wellman and Bob Delhotal.

Committee men and leaders receiving certificates of membership in the Lee Center Community troop, Boy Scouts of America, were:

Chairman—T. L. Traugher.

Finance—E. B. Carlson.

Program—Armond Bayler.

Public relations—Chris Ullrich.

Registration—Earl McNinch. Promotion—Harry Riley. Scoutmaster—George Stanger. Assistant scoutmaster—William Carney.

Lunch was served by the mothers of the Scouts, after the meeting, consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

WATER VS. AIR

Water pressure on the body at 33 feet below the surface is the same as air pressure on the body at sea level—15 pounds per square inch.

World Day of Prayer
The World Day of Prayer will be observed Friday evening in the Methodist church at 7:30. This is a union meeting of all four churches and the pastors will each give a talk. Everyone is invited to be present.

Conference in Sterling
The sub-district education conference will be held in the Fourth Street Methodist church in Sterling Sunday, February 22. Time, 2:15 to 5:00. The Sunday school superintendent, Sunday school officers, Sunday school teachers and any others interested in the teaching program of the Methodist church should plan to attend this meeting.

Gave Report
Kenneth Proust and Mrs. S. L. Cover attended the International Council of Religious Education held at the Stevens hotel in Chicago the past week. They gave a splendid report of the convention at the Church of the Brethren on Sunday.

W. S. C. S.—Circle 2
Circle 2 of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church met on Thursday, February 12 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Butler, with a good attendance of members. The circle Captain, Evelyn Shoemaker, presided. The meeting opened with singing "What A Friend We Have in Jesus", and the Lord's prayer in unison. Roll call, "Valentine verses" was interesting and amusing. The business session followed, with reports of officers and committees. It was decided to postpone the circle tea for the present, though it may be put on later in the season. Collection of the "meal-tax" offering totaled over $15. Red Cross sewing was the project for the day, and the ladies made seven wool skirts to be used for those in need. A short program and discussion of the Red Cross and its many lines of work was led by Mrs. Elizabeth Sunday. A few of the activities of the organization are those of the "gray ladies", volunteer nurses, motor division, blood donors, first aid courses including junior first aid classes with age groups from 12 to 17 years; standard courses, advanced courses and instructor courses. These are only a few of the many, many lines of service of the Red Cross.

Lovely refreshments in patriotic colors, consisting of fruit salad, valentine cakes, wafers and coffee were served by the hostess committee, Mrs. Butler and Mrs. Minnetta Moore.

Honored Former Captain
On Thursday, Feb. 12, Circle No. 1 of the W. S. C. S. honored their former captain, Betty Bettendorff, who has lately become the bride of Henry Gonnemann, with a dinner at the home of Mrs. S. A. Durkes. Covers were laid for twenty-five. Guests of the circle were the Rev. T. B. Reeves, wife and little daughter, Mrs. Fred Bettendorff, and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Durkes. After the delicious dinner which was enjoyed by all, the present captain, Miss Dorothy Durkes, in behalf of the circle, presented Mrs. Gonnemann with a kitchen set of Hall's pottery. She responded with a few well chosen words of thanks.

A short business meeting followed with the pastor giving the opening prayer. Miss Lahman read an article entitled, "It is Good to be Here", taken from the World Outlook and portraying the everyday experiences of one of our missionary doctors in China today.

Mrs. Blanche Cryor gave a most entertaining talk on her recent trip to Mexico City.

The meeting closed with a roll call, to which each lady responded with a favorite receipt, written on a filing card, which she handed the bride for her future use.

Sixty Were Present
The Lutheran Ladies Aid society was hostess to about sixty members and friends of the congregation at the Kersten Gymnasium on Thursday evening. After a delicious scramble supper, a brief business meeting was held, at which time it was voted to secure material for two dozen hospital gowns to sew for the Red Cross. It was also voted to buy six dollars worth of material to be made into loin cloths for the Christians of New Guinea. Plans were discussed for the luncheon for the Wartburg choir of Waverly, Iowa, who will sing at the Franklin Grove gymnasium on March 13. Mrs. Henke invited the society to meet at her home on March 12.

The social hour was spent in playing games and contests planned by Mrs. Bessie Wendel and Miss Ethel Nass. The climaxing feature of the evening was a play entitled "Face to Face with the Mike", presented by the following cast: Harry Schafer, Miss Cora Schafer, Mrs. Catherine Brucker, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schafer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schafer and Vernon Near.

WHEN COLDS AND CONSTIPATION STRIKE TOGETHER—TAKE THIS FAST-ACTING LAXATIVE
When Colds are accompanied by headaches and acute constipation, you feel miserable all over. When a laxative is needed, trust Pluto Water. Although PLUTO works swiftly, it works by gentle osmosis, creating fluid bulk in the colon, flushing digestive waste, usually within an hour. Pluto is a concentrated, fortified and scientifically stabilized saline mineral water with all minerals and salts in complete solution. It passes through the stomach without disturbing its function, is not absorbed, and acts in the colon where physicians want a laxative to act. Try Pluto now! Caution—Use only as directed on label. You must get refreshing, comforting relief in one hour or your money back. In 25c and 50c economy bottles, also 10c size. French Lick Springs Hotel Co., French Lick, Indiana.

CAR CONSERVATION HEADQUARTERS

can help you get longer service from your car and tires!

16 Vital Services...get them regularly from your Standard Oil dealer

With regular care, your car and tires may see you through. Your Standard Oil dealer can give you real help these days. He has a program of necessary services that, when followed with the frequency he recommends, may add months and miles to the life of your car. Start now on this car-saving program... come to Car Conservation Headquarters!

Doubly Important Now—Get These Services Regularly

1. Repack Front Wheel Bearings. Prevent bearing wear—a cause of wheel misalignment and wobbling—an important factor in tire wear. 5000 miles
2. Clean Spark Plugs—Regap. Dirty and worn plugs waste gas. 5000 miles
3. Switch Wheels and Tires. Extremely important in gaining maximum mileage for all tires. Your Standard Oil dealer knows the proper re-arrangement for longest service. 5000 miles
4. Examine Tires for bruises, cuts, nails, glass, etc. Prevent little hurts from growing big. 1000 miles
5. Inflate Tires to proper pressure. Prevent excessive wear due to underinflation, overinflation. Once a week
6. Check Oil Filter. Very important to keep abrasive grit and dirt out of motor. 8000 miles
7. Drain and Flush Radiator, check cooling system, fan belt. Guard against dangerous overheating. Each season
8. Clean Air Cleaner. Dirty air cleaner acts like choke, causes excessive use of gas. Also allows grit to get into motor. 3000 miles (more frequently in dusty driving)
9. Fill Battery to proper level. This care, plus recharging when needed, and cleaning and greasing terminals, prolongs battery life. 7-14 days
10. Check Oil Level. Prolongs engine life by maintaining proper oil level. Each gasoline fill
11. Drain and Refill Crankcase. Draining out dirty oil and refilling with clean fresh oil will prolong engine life. 1000 miles
12. Complete Chassis Lubrication. Prolongs car life by saving wear. Reduces need for parts replacements. 1000 miles
13. Change Transmission and Differential Lubricant. Check level every 1000 miles for protection against gear and bearing wear. Spring and Fall
14. Wax and Polish Car to make finish last indefinitely. 3 months
15. Safety-checking and cleaning of lights, lenses, windshield, and windows. Each station visit
16. Check Anti-freeze to insure proper amount and protection, to avoid boiling or leaking away. Frequently
